

Scan QR Code
to learn more
or to help fund
this case

Help Snohomish County Medical Examiner's Office solve this case!

You can help us
solve cold cases
that have baffled investigators
for years

Homicide Victim Found at McCollum Park

In September 2020, the remains of a male homicide victim were found. The unidentified man stood between 5'3" and 5'9" and was likely between the ages of 20-40. Investigators suspect that he was possibly Native American, Asian, Hispanic or mixed race. Anyone that has information that could aid this investigation is encouraged to contact the Snohomish County Medical Examiner's

DNASolves.com

Stay updated or join the discussion:

dnasolves

dnasolvesadvocates

This flyer was downloaded from DNASolves.com on April 25, 2024 08:20:46. Please seek permission before posting.